RE: MUR 5936

Please allow this letter to serve as my response to your letter dated October 22, 2007 regarding MUR 5936.

I respectfully request that no action be taken on this matter because, in the simplest terms, Ms. June Maxam's complaint against me is as baseless as it is bizarre.

It is exceptionally difficult to understand what Ms. Maxam is even alleging against me in her complaint. Therefore, responding is a challenge. But let me attempt to clarify a few facts here:

During all of 2006 and some of 2005, I was employed by the Florida Democratic Party and did work, exclusively, for Jim Davis's campaign for Governor of Florida. Jim Davis, as Ms. Maxam is fully aware, was a Florida candidate – not a federal candidate.

As Ms. Maxam is also already aware, TerriPAC did reimburse me for a trip I took to Tampa to evaluate the PAC's database and donor recognition process (thank you letters) and some time I spent entering names and addresses into a database over a weekend. None of these actions was of any benefit to Jim Davis or any other candidate for any office let alone any federal candidate.

TerriPAC Florida's address is, it seems to me, a matter for that state PAC and the State of Florida and I am not (and never have been) affiliated with either.

I believe it would be a deep and disappointing waste of the Commission's time and resources to investigate this matter further. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you need any added information.

With regards and thanks,

Danielle Black
